EUROTOX 2021 – GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

By submitting the exhibitor/sponsor application form, the industry partner accepts these General Terms and Conditions.

The contract is legally binding upon signature of both parties. The permission to exhibit at the mentioned congress is granted through this contract and the corresponding invoice. The industry partner has to pay the total amount due to the congress account within 14 days after having received the invoice, at the latest. If the payment has not been realised in due time, the organizer has the right to reverse the permission and to distribute the requested exhibition space to another industry partner. Only after having received the payment in full, the booking will be officially accepted and the exhibition area will be considered bindingly reserved. A cancellation of the permission can also be made if the exhibits of the industry partner are not in accordance with the congress.

In case of cancellation by the industry partner, NO REFUND will be given, neither for booked exhibition space nor for any other ordered furniture/exhibition items or for booked sponsoring items.

The exhibition costs do not include insurances of any kind. The industry partner takes the full liability for all damages caused by him or the staff. The organizer does not take any responsibility or liability for damages or losses at the booths or of the exhibits. All industry partners are advised to arrange appropriate insurances on their own.

The General Terms and Conditions of the virtual congress platform as well as of all service partners apply additionally.

The court of jurisdiction is Switzerland, location of the EUROTOX treasurer. The law of Switzerland applies. All dates and times mentioned in line with the EUROTOX congress refer to Central European Time (CEST).
